The following are all facts.

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee was drowning in sexual abuse claims around the time Jeff Dahmer was arrested.

The man who prosecuted Jeff Dahmer, District Attorney E. Michael McCann, was close friend of Archbishop Rembert Weakland. Weakland, who was gay, had a string of secret lovers and used diocesan funds to pay one of them, Paul Marcoux, \$450,000 to keep their affair quiet.

District Attorney E. Michael McCann's Assistant DA was Gregory J. O'Meara, now known as Rev Gregory J. O'Meara, the rector of the Marquette University Jesuit Community.

Jeff Dahmer's attorney, Gerald Boyle, was representing the accused priests for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Boyle "offered to the archbishop a 'special set fee' to represent any priest from the archdiocese."

Note that the Archdiocese didn't ask Gerald Boyle to help them. Boyle went to the archbishop and offered his services for a set fee. In other words, Boyle was committed to helping the Archdiocese of Milwaukee handle its huge problem with pedophile priests.

From Bishop Accountability.org:

Father Lesniewski had recently hired Milwaukee attorney Gerald Boyle to represent him. That, according to Bishop Sklba's letter, was fortuitous. Mr. Boyle had recently offered to the archbishop a "special set fee" to represent any priest from the archdiocese.

In the agreement with attorney Boyle, the archdiocese would be billed directly for the priest and the priest would then reimburse the archdiocese when able. The agreement would cover Mr. Boyle's retainer, pleadings, initial settlement discussions, discovery and, if necessary, trial costs.

Judge William Gardner, the man who - according to the official story - sentenced J Dahmer to a year in prison (where's the evidence?) for molesting Somsack Sinthasomphone, had worked for McCann at one time and said deaf students who were sexually molested by Father Lawrence Murphy were "making up stories".

school was located, Mr. Conway said. They also went to the office of E. Michael McCann, the district attorney of Milwaukee County, and spoke with his assistant, William Gardner.

"A criminal priest was an oxymoron to them," Mr. Conway said. "They said they'll refer it to the archdiocese."

Calls to Mr. McCann and Mr. Gardner this week were not returned.

The sexual abuse scandal in the Milwaukee Archdiocese is a series of sexual-abuse cases that occurred in the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, US.

Lawrence Murphy case [edit]

Lawrence Murphy was a priest who taught at the former St. John School for the Deaf in the Milwaukee suburb of St. Francis from 1950 to 1974. He is believed to have molested up to 200 deaf boys before the mid-1970s.<sup>[1]</sup> Local law enforcement agencies, including the Milwaukee Police Department, St. Francis police, and the Milwaukee County District Attorney, were informed of the abuse in 1974 by adult graduates of the St. John School for the Deaf but expressed doubts about the credibility of the allegations and the statute of limitations, and did not proceed.<sup>[2]</sup>

The two officers, Balcerzak and Gabrish, who supposedly returned a bleeding "Konerak" Sinthasomphone to Jeff Dahmer, helped Gerald Boyle defend the accused Capuchin priests and brothers:

The officers, who were  removed from the department, claimed that they believed the youngster was involved in a "gay spat" with Dahmer. Dahmer's defense attorney, Gerald Boyle, later hired the dismissed police officers as private investigators in his defense work for the accused Capuchin priests and brothers from St. Lawrence seminary in Mt. Calvary.

The Sinthasomphone family was brought to the US by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The family was closely associated with Father Peter Burns, a man who was eventually convicted of second-degree sexual assault against a teenage boy.

We also know that the Sinthasomphone family sued the City of Milwaukee and were awarded \$850,000 because of what Jeff Dahmer supposedly did to "Konerak Sinthasomphone", someone we can't find any official records for and who looks strikingly like Somsack Sinthasomphone:

Why were so many of the people involved in this news story, including the Sinthasomphone family, connected to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee?

What really happened to Somsack Sinthasomphone?

Did the Sinthasomphone family's lawsuit against the City of Milwaukee - which was made possible because of Jeff Dahmer's alleged crimes - save the Archdiocese of Milwaukee $850,000? The Archdiocese had already paid a $650,000 lawsuit a few years before. Read all about that and more here: The Sexual Abuse of Children in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee eventually ended up filing Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in 2011 because of its numerous sex abuse lawsuit liabilities.

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee has a long list of restricted priests on its website. Click on a name and then click on "documents" to read about each priest. Father I. Burns, close friend of the Sinthasomphone family is listed there.

If you're wondering why Jeff Dahmer agreed to participate and play a serial killer, here's a theory.

UPDATE: We recently found another connection to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. See, The Archdiocese of Milwaukee Again - Jeff Dahmer and Dr. Charles Lodl. Oh, and 808 N. 25th Street, the address where Jeff Dahmer supposedly molested Somsack Sinthasomphone, the Laotian refugee, was the DA's address.
