Here's Jeff Dahmer's will:

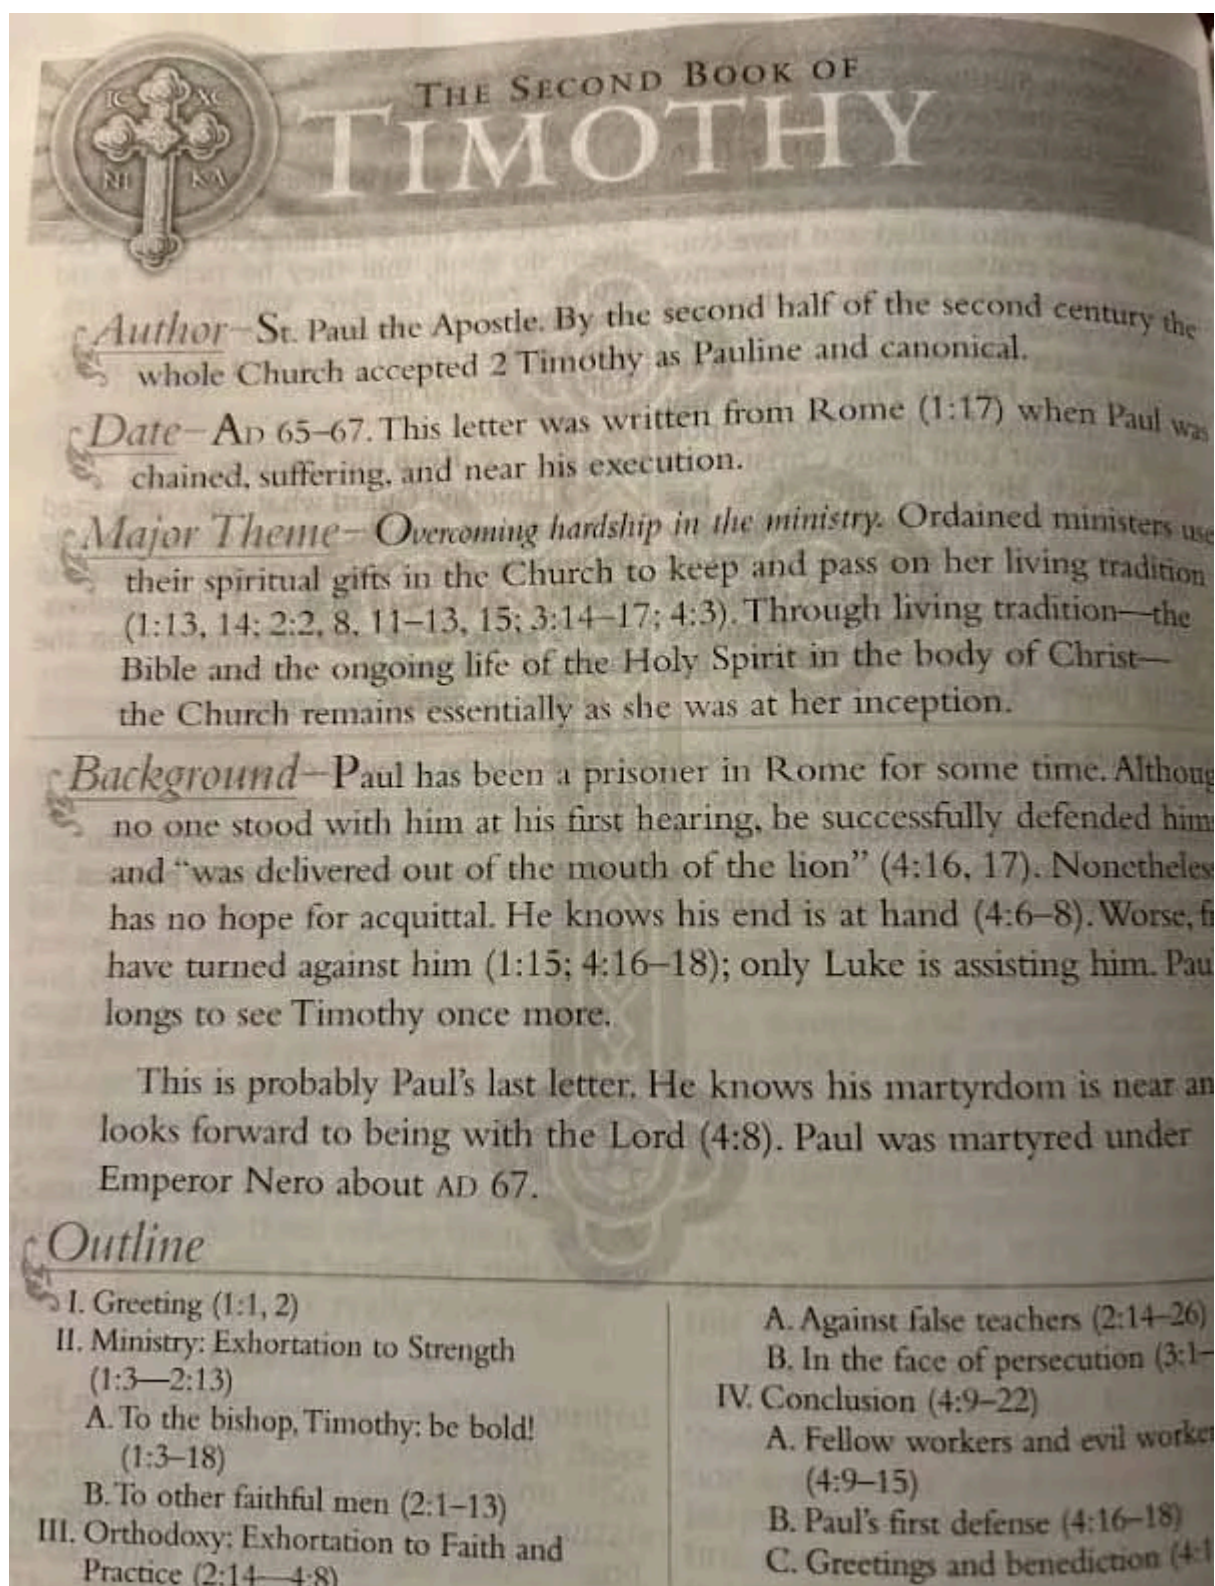

Jeff Dahmer's will

It's a strange document. Jeff requests cremation and then insists that there be no "open casket". The names of the two witnesses are illegible and not typed out. There is nothing on there saying that the two witnesses "declare under penalty of perjury the foregoing is true and correct," etc.

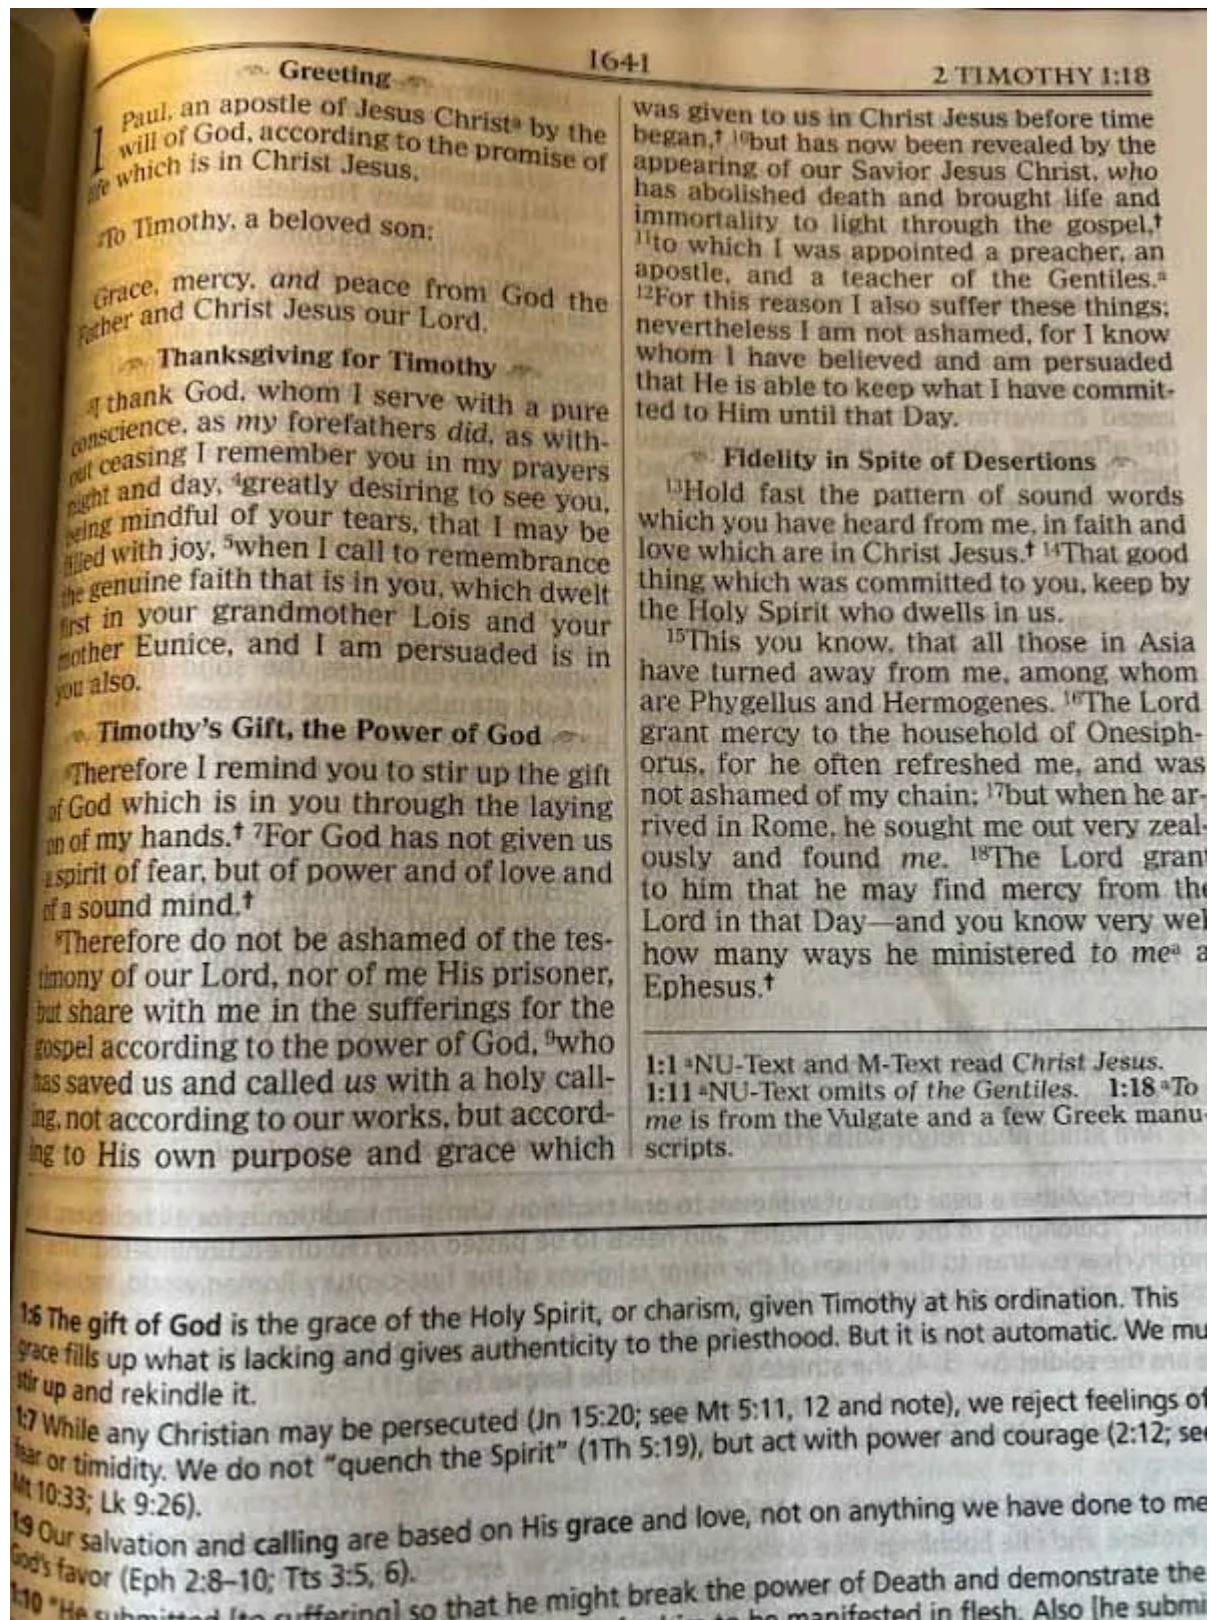

We're going to assume it's authentic because that looks like Jeff's signature on it

Let's take a look at the first passage from the New Testament that appears in Jeff's will: 2 Timothy 1:12.

Jeff could have chosen thousands of other passages but chose this one. And it's a interesting choice. Here's some information about 2 Timothy. Pay attention to the Background:

Jeff chose a passage written by someone - Paul - who was unjustly imprisoned for faith.

For this reason, I also suffer these things; nevertheless, I am not ashamed, for I know what I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.

Paul wasn't ashamed of being in prison because he knew it was actually an honor. He was unjustly imprisoned for your faith. He knew and trusted God.

Given everything else we've uncovered about this case, why do you think he quoted this particular passage?

It's very appropriate and I can see why he would choose it. Paul was being persecuted by the state. Jeff was being persecuted by the WI state. Jeff saw himself in Paul's position, in my view helped him through this. Better to be unjustly imprisoned & stand with your faith, than face the alternative, as covered in the latest theory of what happened. Very interesting.

And yes, the will is not what a will should look like. It misses key details such as the full names, addresses of the testator & witnesses for instance. There is no named executor. No printed witness names, no clarity.
