We've been wondering how they found out about Steven Hicks. We always thought must have confessed. But, who did he confess to? Did he walk into a precinct and confess? Some other way? How did it happen? They (Jeff, Lionel, and Shari) could gotten away with it. So, who spilled the beans and to whom?

This budget, that was either created by Lionel or Jeff's grandmother in November 1988, shows that Jeff was paying a "Dr. Lodel" $120/month for something.

Jeff Dahmer - Budget November 20, 1988

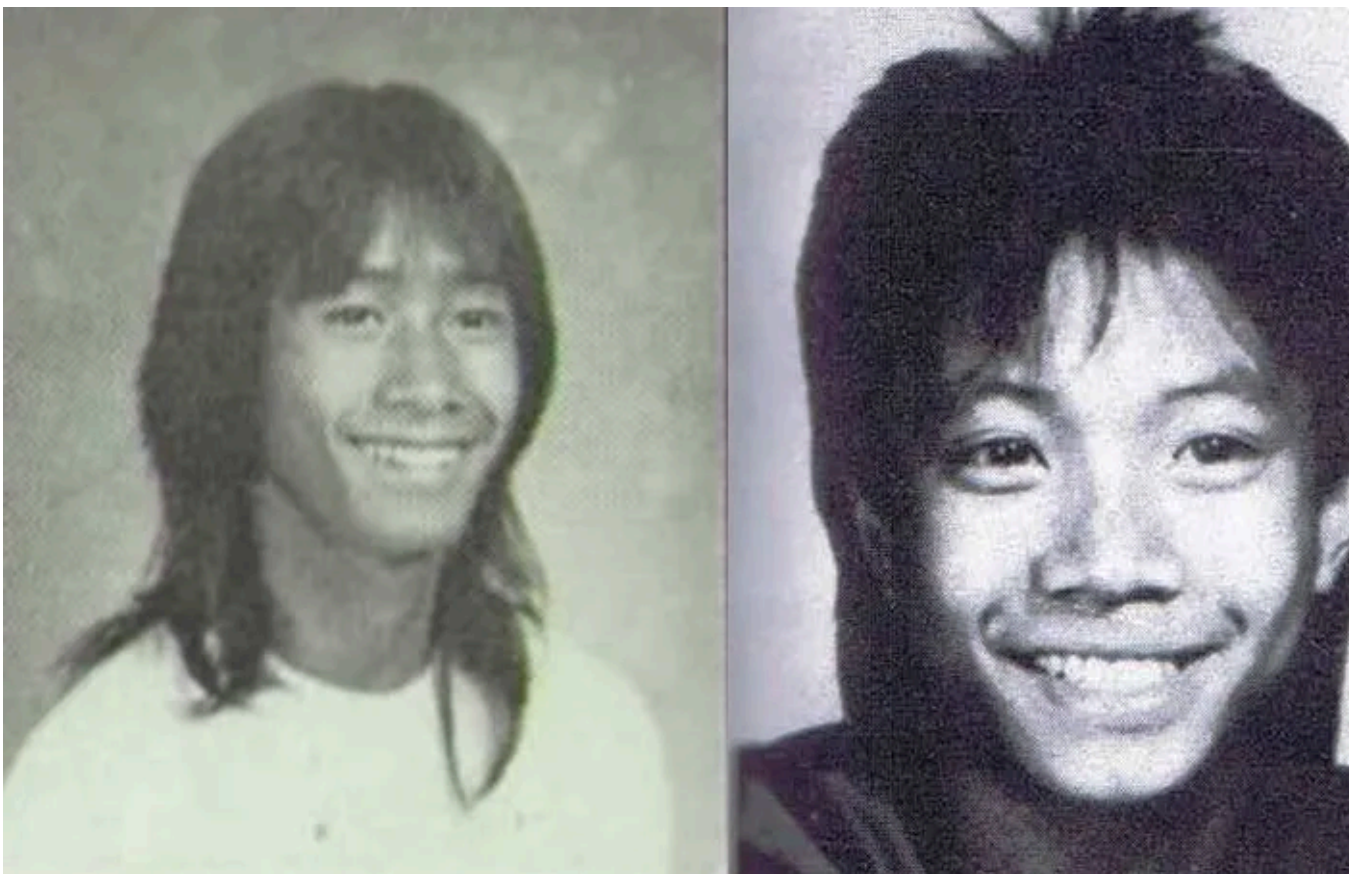

It looks like the surname was misspelled and that it's referring to Dr. Charles Lodi

So, who was Dr. Charles Lodi?

Dr. Charles Lodi was a staff psychologist at St. Michael Hospital Health Center in Milwaukee, from 1981 to 1989, the time Jeff was seeing him for something.

Those who know the official narrative well will probably be thinking that this was therapy Jeff was ordered to receive while he was waiting to be sentenced for molesting Somsack Sinthasomphone.

We caution you to be very careful what you believe about this story. They wove little grains of truth in with their lies and twisted things. Once you start taking anything they claim at face value you'll find yourself in their diabolically-crafted mental quicksand. Here are side-by-side photos of Somsack Sinthasomphone (the boy Jeff Dahmer supposedly molested) and "Konerak" Sinthasomphone, the boy Jeff Dahmer supposedly murdered:

We couldn't find any evidence "Konerak" ever existed, any evidence Jeff ever lived at the address where this supposed sexual assault took place, any evidence "Konerak" alleged parents ever filed a Social Security claim for either him or Somsack, and Je background check in Wisconsin is clean, in contrast to Father Peter Burns' conviction which does show up in his background check.

Ok, back to Dr. Lodi. Look where we found him. You can't make this stuff up:

The screenshot shows the website of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The header includes navigation links: My Archmil, News & Events, Careers, Report Misconduct, Contacts, and Español. Below the header is a search bar and icons for School, Parish, Mass, Confession, and Devotion. A secondary navigation bar lists: Parishes, Ministries & Offices, Schools, Sacraments & Formation, About Us, and Clergy Abuse Response. The main content area features a large banner with the text "News Detail" over a background image of a newspaper. Below the banner, a breadcrumb trail reads: Home > News & Events > Search for News > News Detail. The article title is "Archbishop Dolan Appoints Diocesan Review Board - Jan. 2, 2003". The text of the article states: "A diocesan review board, which will oversee the Archdiocese of Milwaukee's response to clergy sexual abuse, has been appointed by Archbishop Timothy M. Dolan. The board's first meeting will be in January. Appointed by Archbishop Dolan to three-year board terms are Rev. James E. Connell, an Archdiocese of Milwaukee priest; Hannah C. Dugan of Milwaukee, an attorney with the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee; Margaret A. Farrow of Pewaukee, Wis., the outgoing Lieutenant Governor; Dr. Charles Lodi, Ph.D. of Mequon, a clinical psychologist in private practice, and Donald J. Schuenke of Elm Grove, retired chairman of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. The board's mandate was outlined in an appointment letter issued to each member by Archbishop Dolan. In that letter, the archbishop asks the board to:"

On the right side of the article, there are two sidebar widgets. The first is "Search for News" with a magnifying glass icon and text: "Search for news article from our bishops and other archdiocesan offices." The second is "Wisconsin Catholic Conference" with a Wisconsin state flag icon and text: "Get updates from the Public Policy Voice of Wisconsin's Bishops."

Dr. Charles Lodi, Ph.D. is a clinical psychologist in private practice in Mequon, Wis. Dr. Lodi specializes in therapy for sexual abuse victims and offenders. He is also active in community education programs to prevent abuse. Dr. Lodi earned his bachelor of arts degree in human relations (sociology/psychology) from Mount St. Paul College in Waukesha, Wis., in 1970. He earned a master of science degree in Clinical Psychology from Marquette University in 1974 and his doctorate in educational psychology from Marquette University in 1980. He has led numerous sessions and workshops in psychology throughout his career. In addition to his private practice, which he began in 1981, Dr. Lodi is a consultant with Lutheran Social Services in Racine, Wis., and the Wisconsin Correctional Services - Bridge Halfway House in Milwaukee. He also served as a staff psychologist at St. Michael Hospital Health Center in Milwaukee, from 1981 to 1989. Dr. Lodi is currently a member of St. Cecilia parish in Thiensville, Wis.

Note that Dr. Charles Lodi was appointed by the Archbishop to sit on the Diocesan Review Board. His job was to "oversee the Archdiocese of Milwaukee's response to clergy sexual abuse."

You don't say.

What is it about the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, pedophiles, and this phony "serial killer" story?

Dr. Lodi's presence on a diocesan review board indicates he was connected and someone the Archbishop trusted. Dr. Lodi was probably seeing both perps and victims of clergy sexual abuse. Was Father Peter Burns one of his patients, perhaps? Was Somsack one of his patients?

What was Jeff seeing him for? Was Jeff sexually molested as a child? More than one person has noticed Lionel Dahmer's strange blinking when he was asked about it.

What about Jeff's alcohol problem? Could he have been seeing Dr. Lodi about that? What caused Jeff's alcohol problem anyway?

Could Jeff have possibly had PTSD from accidentally killing Steven Hicks in 1978?

We don't know. However, Brian Masters noted a connection between Gerald Boyle and Dr. Lodi in his book, The Shrine of Jeffrey Dahmer:

treatment.'

This is the first time that we meet Attorney Gerald Boyle, hired by Lionel Dahmer to defend his son against the pending charges. It was Boyle who sought the opinion of Dr Lodi, which he then forwarded to Probation Officer Gloria Anderson. She in turn commissioned a second opinion from Dr Norman Goldfarb, whose report is, if anything, even more cautionary. The interview took place two months after that with Dr Lodi, and in the interim Dahmer had sloughed off that tentative hint of co-

Was that really how it happened?

Brian Masters' book is really nothing more than a repetition of the official narrative. In it, you'll hear all about "Eddie Smith", the "female impersonator" (He certainly has a lot of information about poor "Curtis" Straughter, Richard Guerrero (who actually died in 1960) etc. So, you'll want to be cautious about believing anything contained in it. Even Brian Masters did imply that Gerald Boyle knew Dr. Lodl.

So, did Gerald Boyle really contact Dr. Lodl....or did Dr. Lodl contact Gerald Boyle after Jeff confessed to covering up the accidental death of Steven Hicks in 1978? Perhaps Jeff confessed to someone else connected to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Was that Jean-Paul Ranieri?

Even without Masters mentioning that Gerald Boyle knew Dr. Lodl, we could assume that just based on the fact that both were Catholic professionals involved in helping the Archdiocese of Milwaukee with its pedophile priest problem.

So, here's the Archdiocese of Milwaukee lineup we have so far:

- Gerald Boyle, Jeff Dahmer's attorney - Attorney for the Archdiocese representing clergy accused of sexual assault against minors
- E. Michael McCann, District Attorney who prosecuted Jeff - Close friend of Archbishop Rembert Weakland
- Judge William Gardner, Judge who supposedly sentenced Jeff for molesting Somsack - Said the victims of Father Murphy were "making up stories"
- Gregory O'Meara, Assistant DA in Jeff's "trial" - Now known as Father Greg O'Meara, a Jesuit priest.
- Dr. Charles Lodl, Jeff Dahmer's therapist- Member of Diocesan Review Board overseeing the Archdiocese's response to clergy sexual abuse.
- Officers Balcerzak and Gabrish - the two men who supposedly returned a bleeding "Konerak" Sinthasomphone to Jeff Dahmer helped Gerald Boyle defend priests and brothers accused of sexual assault.

Nothing at all suspicious here.

Also, Jeff Dahmer's Trial: An Exploration of the Peculiar Legal Process is essential understanding how they pulled this off.

There's too many links between this archdiocese & this story to ignore. And they have a motive raises some serious questions. Corruption indeed.

Interesting connections.

I think Lionel "knows" more than he let on. His body language was uncomfortable in the interview posted previously.

This case caught my attention for a particular reason. My late SO did his chemistry internship at Barberton and his mentor was Lionel. He described him as highly intelligent, altruistic, and very. He said he learned a lot from Dr. Dahmer.

Several years ago, my SO caught that interview (or an interview—I was not there) with Lionel so he had had fantasies of killing and eating someone. My SO was really shocked since he had worked closely with him during his internship. He said he guessed that must have been why Jeffrey got tendencies. But, my SO never indicated that he thought Lionel did anything along those lines, I was glad that Lionel never acted on his fantasies.

Or...hmmm. Something is odd here. You have been pointing out a number of questionable mis in the official story.
