From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Secret Life: Jeffrey Dahmer is a 1993 American low budget biographical crime drama film directed by David R. Bowen. It stars Carl Crew as Jeffrey Dahmer, an American serial killer, necrophile, and cannibal. The film is a firsthand account of Dahmer's lifestyle as a serial killer. When he was finally caught, it was revealed that his apartment was a chamber of horrors, where, according to the film, he tortured his young victims to death. Then he sliced up the bodies and stored the parts in his freezer, among other places. The Secret Life: Jeffrey Dahmer was produced one year before Dahmer was himself murdered in prison.^[2]

In April of 1993, Jeff Dahmer did his first interview, on Inside Edition. You can watch the full interview here:

Jeffrey Dahmer - Complete Inside Edition interview with Nancy Glass

So, Carl Crew's film, The Secret Life: Jeffrey Dahmer was filmed 7-9 months before] Dahmer's first interview. With that in mind, have a listen:

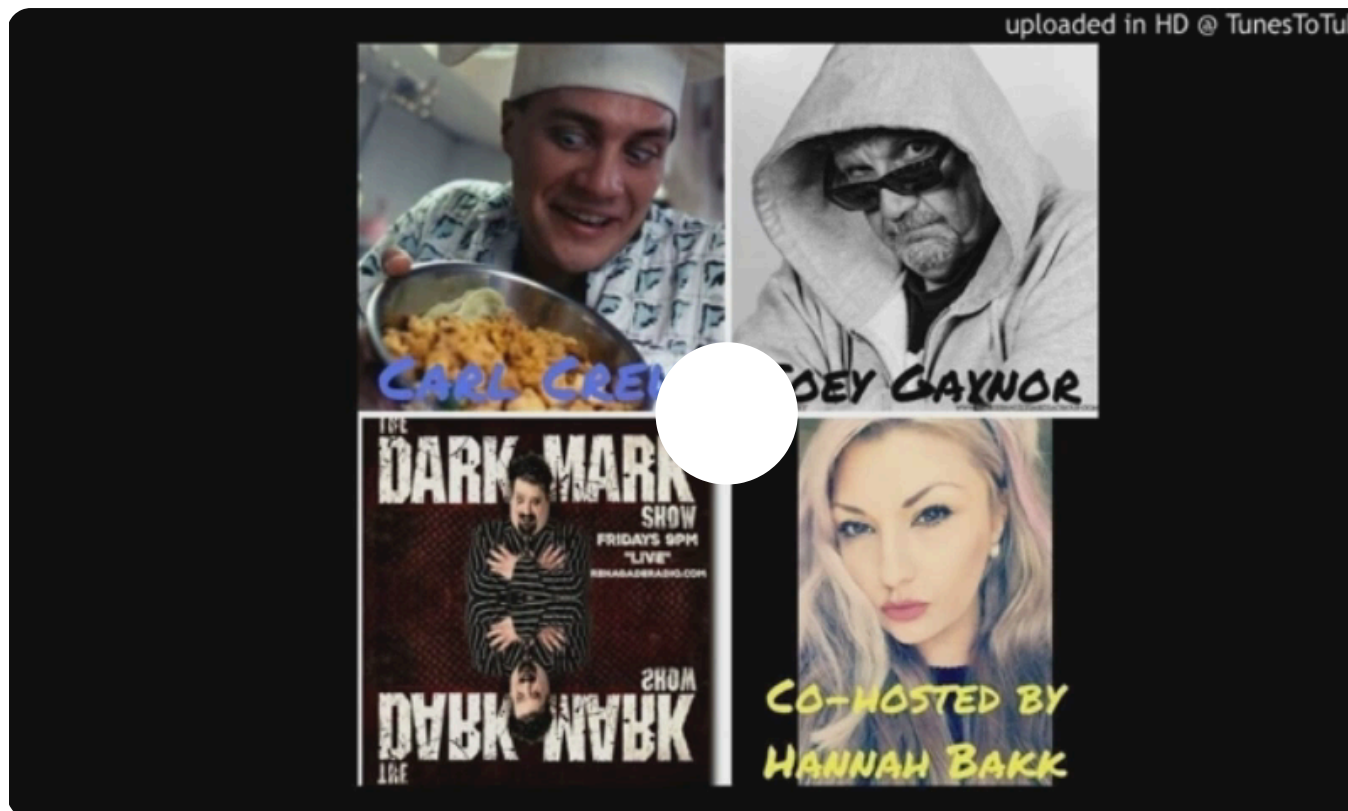

The line they're both speaking is...

"The compulsive obsession with doing what I was doing overpowered any feelin revulsion."

So, Jeff Dahmer isn't telling the truth here. He's speaking a line from Carl Crew's script for the film The Secret Life: Jeffrey Dahmer, which had already been filmed months before this Inside Edition interview. In other words, Jeff Dahmer is actin

There are probably other places in the Inside Edition interview where he lifts line from Carl Crew's script. A close comparison between the two is warranted.

Carl Crew claims he wrote the script for this film from "police interviews":

Carl Crew doesn't say where he got these "police interviews" from. Of course, it v be logical to assume he got them from the Milwaukee Police Department, no? We you look at the credits on the IMDb page for this film, you won't find the Milwau PD listed there. You will find the Buenaventura Police Department and the Malib Sheriff's Department though.

If this were a real case, Carl Crew wouldn't have had access to those "police interviews" anyway. We leave you with this clip of neighbor Pat Snyder saying tha and Lionel Dahmer were acting:

Derf did recall in his memoir, what an 'incredible talent for BS, honed to perfection' Jeff had. Th believable.

Just more proof that this story was nothing more than fictitious fantasy. Pure 'Hollywood'.
