Michael McCann, the District Attorney who prosecuted Jeff Dahmer

Michael McCann, the DA who prosecuted Jeff Dahmer in 1991

DA Michael McCann is a Catholic Democrat and former seminary student. He was a close friend of Milwaukee Archbishop Rembert Weakland, a homosexual who eventually resigned in disgrace. You can read more about Michael McCann at A No More. Here's an excerpt:

But in recent years, the halo has begun to disappear from the Democrat's image, smudged if not erased, by countless complaints from detractors: McCann has done little when citizens are fatally shot by police, he has been less than aggressive about sexual assault by minors by priests, he failed to go after corrupt activities by prominent Democrats. And McCann never declined the lucrative 25 percent bonus included in the controversial county pension plan.

District Attorney Michael McCann, the man who prosecuted Jeff Dahmer, was a Democrat

Gerald Boyle, Jeff Dahmer's lawyer

In addition to being a Democrat, Gerald Boyle was also a lawyer representing pedophile priests for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

After an unsuccessful bid for a Milwaukee County Children's Court judgeship in 1968, McCann resigned from his position as a prosecutor to challenge District Attorney David J. Cannon, a Republican who had been appointed by Governor Warren Knowles to fill a vacancy in the office.^[2] McCann defeated Milwaukee attorney Gerald P. Boyle for the Democratic nomination and unseated Cannon in the fall general election.^[3] McCann was reelected in 1970, defeating Republican Thomas Doherty, formerly Cannon's deputy district attorney.^[4]

Jeff Dahmer's lawyer, Gerald Boyle, was a Democrat

Father Lesniewski had recently hired Milwaukee attorney Gerald Boyle to represent him. That, according to Bishop Sklba's letter, was fortuitous. Mr. Boyle had recently offered to the archbishop a "special set fee" to represent any priest from the archdiocese.

In the agreement with attorney Boyle, the archdiocese would be billed directly for the priest and the priest would then reimburse the archdiocese when able. The agreement would cover Mr. Boyle's retainer, pleadings, initial settlement discussions, discovery and, if necessary, trial costs.

Read more about Boyle at Bishop Accountability.org.

Incidentally, Gerald Boyle's wife was the academic dean at a Catholic teacher's c called Cardinal Stritch University:

The board's new vice-chair is Dr. Marna Boyle, who has been a Board member since 2005. Dr. Cusack, who had been vice-chair, has served on the Board since 1997. She holds a doctorate in canon law from the Catholic University of America, and has served as an adjunct faculty member at SHSST for many years, teaching canon law. Dr. Boyle is the former academic dean and is currently an associate professor at Cardinal Stritch University. She holds an Ed.D. degree from Nova Southeastern University.

Oh, and Gerald Boyle's brother was a Jesuit priest:

Rev Gregory J. O'Meara, the assistant DA

District Attorney E. Michael McCann's, Assistant DA was Gregory J. O'Meara, n known as Rev Gregory J. O'Meara, the rector of the Marquette University Jesuit Community.

Judge William Gardner

Judge William Gardner was the judge who sentenced Jeff Dahmer for allegedly molesting Somsack Sinthasomphone. William Gardner was Michael McCann's d district attorney. Note that both men attended the St. Francis Seminary.

A 1960 graduate of Marquette University Law School, Gardner was named deputy district attorney in 1969 by then District Attorney E. Michael McCann. He met McCann while both attended St. Francis Seminary. They were on the football team.

Dr. Charles Lodi

treatment.'

This is the first time that we meet Attorney Gerald Boyle, hired by Lionel Dahmer to defend his son against the pending charges. It was Boyle who sought the opinion of Dr Lodl, which he then forwarded to Probation Officer Gloria Anderson. She in turn commissioned a second opinion from Dr Norman Goldfarb, whose report is, if anything, even more cautionary. The interview took place two months after that with Dr Lodl, and in the interim Dahmer had sloughed off that tentative hint of co-

Damn the more I investigate this case, the more truth I uncover about the politicians, media, and the court. These people are all hypocrites who targeted Jeff, an innocent civilian. My heart to the Dahmer family. I've always felt sorry for them and I will always be disgusted towards those who badly treated Jeff.
