Jeff Dahmer Motion Hearing (1992)

Here's an easier to read version:

Attorney Gerald Boyle: As you can see, on all 15 guilty plea questionnaires, at the beginning of each paragraph are the initials JD. I have certified within my discussion

Mr. Dahmer that in fact he did initial each and every paragraph of every one of the 15 guilty questionnaires in the presence of my associate Ellen Ryan. I asked him if he wanted me to re-read the 15 guilty plea questionnaires and say the same thing 14 more times. He told me it would be a waste of time. His signature is on each and every guilty plea questionnaire and I have discussed the elements of each and every one of these crimes with him as have both of my associates and he has signed the document saying that that has been done. So, I have an...Ellen Ryan...attorney working on this case...has gone over specifically each and every guilty plea questionnaire. In other words, she did it 15 times then Mr. Dahmer would initial each paragraph, and I asked Mr. Dahmer yesterday if that was a fact and he said it was. But, he did me the courtesy of not having to have me re-read each one of them. In other words, I've just been told by Ms. Ryan that while she read to him he then initialed them, but she didn't read the same thing 15 times...but the paragraph number one is the same 15 times and they were then initialed by Mr. Dahmer reflecting that he has read them and obviously has had them read to him by Miss Ryan or by myself.

Judge: OK, <unclear> you have gone over each and every one of these forms with legal counsel. Is that correct?

Jeff Dahmer: Yes, we have, your honor.

Judge: And do you feel you understand what they say.

Jeff Dahmer: I do understand.

Judge: And as to each of them there's a signature at the bottom of the front page. Is that your signature, sir?

Jeff Dahmer: That's my signature.

Judge: And also on the back side. Is that your signature, sir?

Jeff Dahmer: Yes, it is your honor.

Judge: Has anyone promised you anything or threatened you in any way to get you to do this?

Jeff Dahmer: No, your honor.

Judge: Has your attorney advised you of the maximum penalties for these offenses?

Jeff Dahmer: Yes, he has.

Judge: Did he explain to you that as judge that I could impose up to those maximum penalties, and in fact make the penalties consecutive if I thought it was the right thing to do?

Jeff Dahmer: Yes he's done that.

Judge: Did he also discuss with you the law in Wisconsin as it exists today regarding parole date...which I guess applies to 13 of them...Did Mr Boyle explain that to you, sir?

Jeff Dahmer: Yes, he did.

Judge: Do you further understand sir that when you plead guilty to these offenses the certain group of rights that you're giving up. You're giving up the right to remain silent, the right to confront the witnesses against you, the right to call witnesses on your own behalf, the right to a jury trial, and the right to require the state to prove each and every element of the offense charged beyond a reasonable doubt. Are you satisfied that you understand that, sir?

Jeff Dahmer: Yes, your honor.

We asked the court for a copy of those signed guilty pleas. This was the response received:

Dear Citizen,

Milwaukee County has received your records request dated 07/13/2023. Upon reviewing your public records request, FS-Case-14503622, it has been determined that Milwaukee County cannot complete it for the reason(s) listed below:

There were no guilty pleas for this case. Defendant Dahmer was found guilty at trial.

To the extent you consider anything in this communication to be a denial of your request, please be advised you have the right to review of any denial by mandamus under Wis. Stat. § 19.37(1), or upon application to the attorney general. See Wis. Stat. § 19.35(4)(b).

Thank you,

Milwaukee County

Your request, FS-Case-14503622, has been cancelled

Note the sentence in the response: “Defendant Dahmer was found guilty at trial.” is incorrect. Jeff was not “found guilty at trial” since he waived all his constitutional rights to a fair trial to prove guilt. The “trial” was about trying to prove “insanity” have a detailed analysis of the “trial” and Gerald Boyle’s peculiar legal maneuvers

Without any signed guilty pleas, it cannot be said that Jeff Dahmer murdered anyone in Milwaukee.

How can the authorities explain this? In the absence of those signed guilty pleas, this case exists in the media.
