

Why Didn't Lionel and Shari Dahmer Want Je Talking To The FBI?

The letter below, from Jeff Dahmer to his father and stepmother, appears to be authentic. (I've also typed it out and highlighted certain parts.)

Keep in mind that this letter was written 6 months after Jeff's "trial". The whole case had supposedly been settled, no?

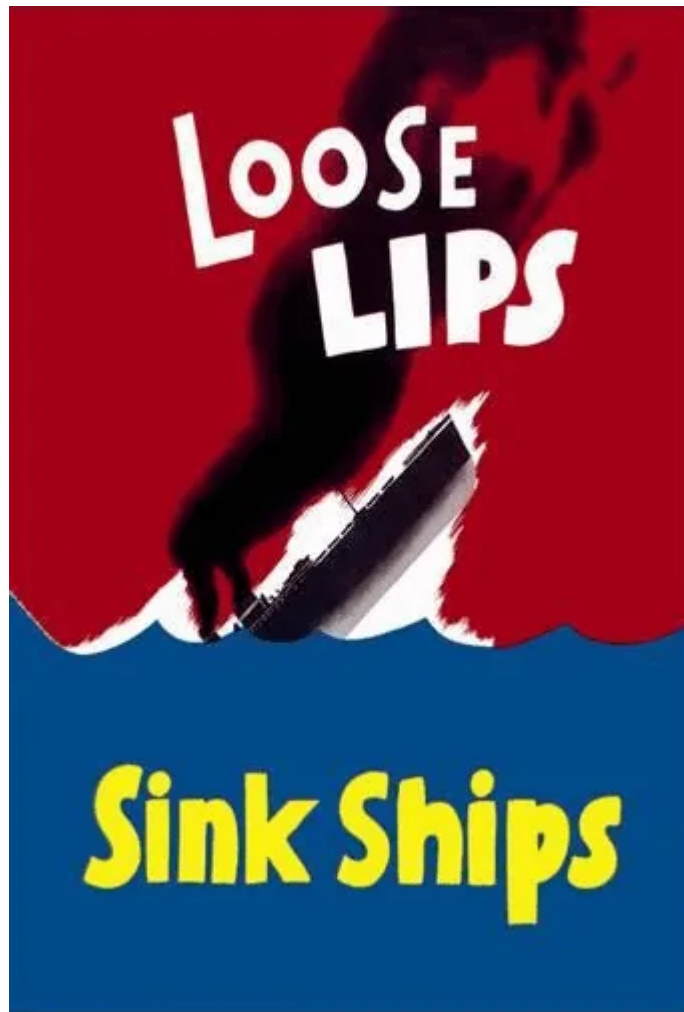

Not quite.

Jeff wrote the letter because Lionel and Shari Dahmer were very worried about the fact that Jeff had spoken to the FBI. They told Bob Mozenter, the attorney who represented Jeff in Ohio, and he then called Jeff.

Perhaps the conversation went like this:

"Bob, we have a situation here. We just found out that Jeff talked to the FBI!"

That prompted Jeff to write this letter.

Why were Lionel and Shari Dahmer worried about what Jeff had possibly told them?

It's clear from his letter that Jeff already knew the answer. It was about the book his father was "writing" (probably ghostwritten), which was going to be about Jeff's childhood and would contain the "serial killer" backstory.

Lionel and Shari Dahmer wanted to know what Jeff had told that FBI agent.

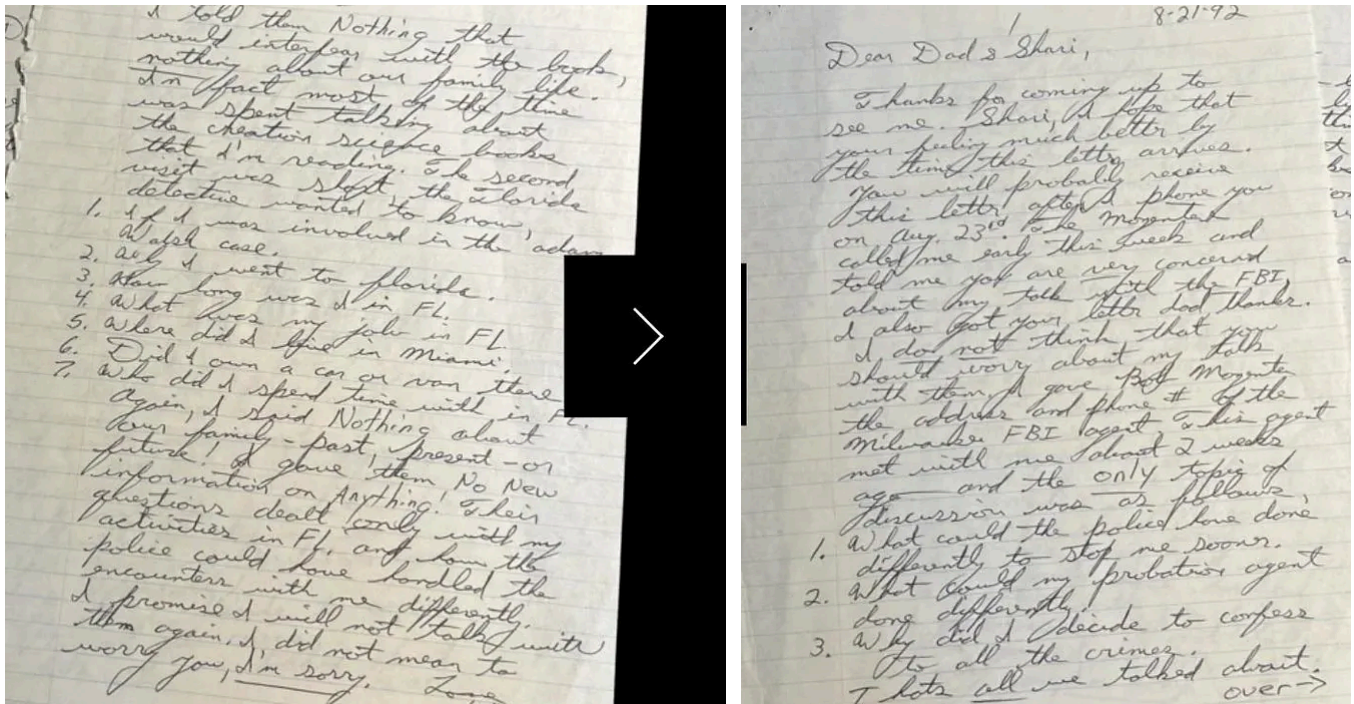

In his letter, Jeff told them:

"I told them nothing that would interfere with the book, NOTHING about our family life...I gave them NO NEW information on ANYTHING!"

He finishes his letter by promising them that he wouldn't speak to the FBI again

"I promise I will not talk with them again."

Were Lionel and Shari Dahmer worried about getting caught by honest FBI agents trying to do their job? Were they trying to make sure their stories matched?

Letter from Jeff Dahmer to his father and stepmother

8-21-92

Dear Dad & Shari,

Thanks for coming up to see me. Shari, I hope that your feeling much better by the time this letter arrives.

You will probably receive this letter after I phone you on Aug. 23rd.

Bob Mozenter* called me early this week and told me you are very concerned about my talk with the FBI. I also got your letter, dad. Thanks.

I DO NOT think that you should worry about my talk with them. I gave Bob Mozenter the address and phone # of the Milwaukee FBI agent. This agent met with me a few weeks ago and the ONLY topic of discussion was as follows:

1. What could the police have done differently to stop me sooner.
2. What could my probation agent have done differently.

3. Why did I decide to confess to all the crimes.

That's ALL we talked about.

I told them nothing that would interfere with the book, NOTHING about our family life. In fact most of the time was spent talking about the creation science books I'm reading. The second visit was short. The Florida detective wanted to know,

1. If I was involved in the Adam Walsh case.
2. Why I went to Florida.
3. How long was I in FL.
4. What was my job in FL.
5. Where did I live in Miami.
6. Did I own a car or van there.
7. Who did I spend time with in FL.

Again, I said NOTHING about our family - past, present - or future! I gave them NEW information on ANYTHING!. Their questions dealt only with my activities in FL and how the police could have handled the encounters with me differently.

I promise I will not talk with them again. I did not mean to worry you, I'm sorry

Love, Jeff

Here's attorney Bob Mozenter (mentioned in the letter) saying that Jeff was a "monster", etc. If you're outside the US, you may have to use a VPN to view the article. Here's a screenshot of the article's title:

3News Investigates: Jeffrey Dahmer's return sparks memories of a 'monster' in his Summit County hometown

While Jeffrey Dahmer's Bath Township pal remembers their school bus rides together, his defense attorney recalls a cold killer.

"He was a monster," Mozenter said. "I don't know how else to describe him. If you read his confession, you would come to the conclusion that he was a monster."

Are we to believe that Bob Mozenter didn't know about Richard Guerrero's 1960 certificate, Ernest Richard Smith, the curious connections to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, or the fact that Jeff Dahmer's confession - which Mozenter mentioned - contained another man's Social Security number?

We noticed that Bob Mozenter was pushing the same "he won't last two years because he's killed in prison" narrative as Gerald Boyle, Jeff Dahmer's attorney in Wisconsin.

He also recalls predicting Dahmer's eventual murder at the hands of a fellow inmate.

"Well, I'll tell you a secret," he said. "I told Jeffrey's father after the sentencing [in Akron] that I predicted he would not live two years in prison, that they would kill him in prison. And I think it was 15 months later, he got killed."

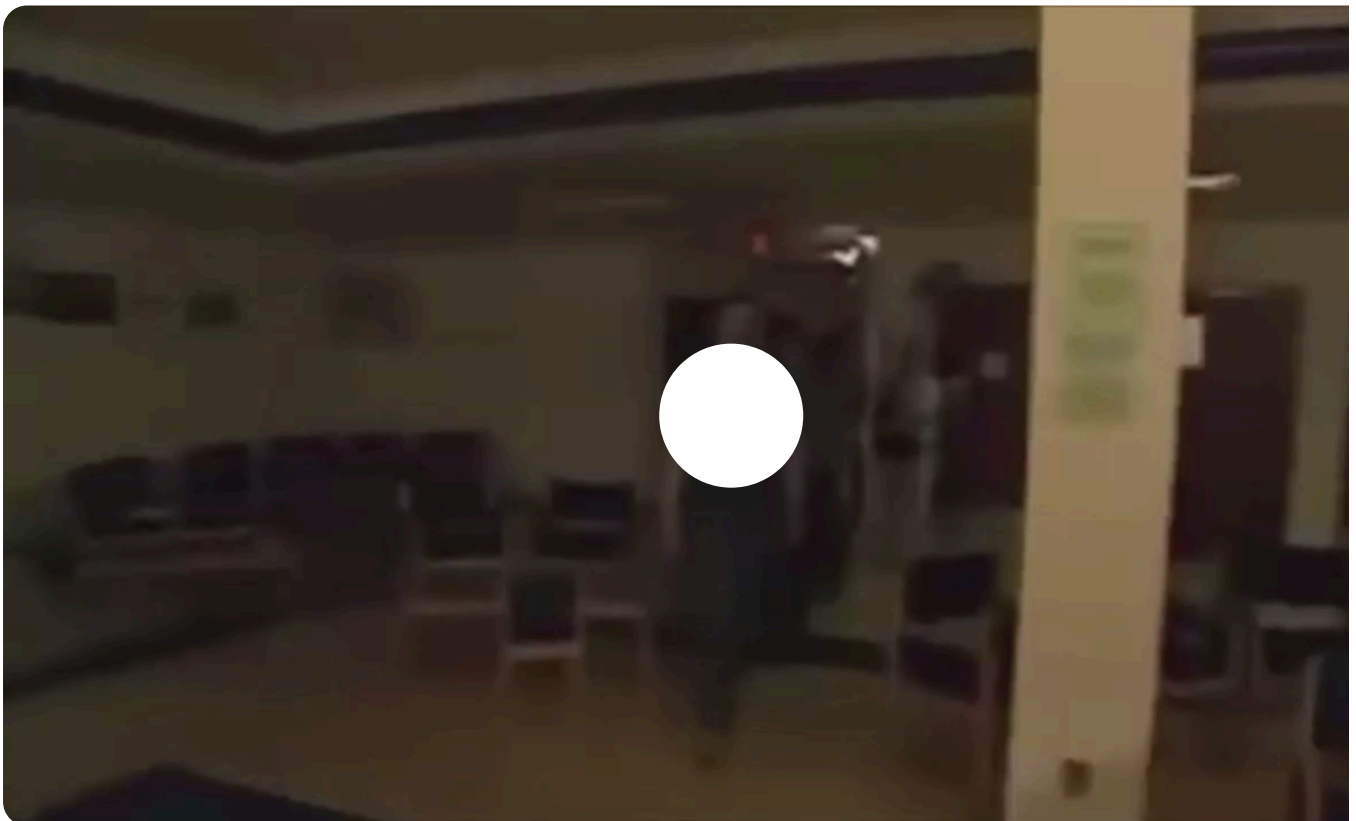

Bob Mozenter predicts Jeff Dahmer will be killed in prison

"Dahmer had a death wish, and I know that he didn't have the gumption to do it himself, so I had predicted that the day would come when he would be killed in prison," said Gerald Boyle, Dahmer's lawyer at trial.

Gerald Boyle predicts Jeff Dahmer will be killed in prison

This appears to have been a narrative they set up almost straight away.

Watch this short, 17-second clip of Jeff, Lionel, and Shari Dahmer. The clip is interesting because it shows the dynamic between Jeff, Lionel, and Shari. Note that when Jeff gives his father a hug after they hug. What's going on isn't just about Jeff. It's about all three of them.

So glad to have found your stack. I've been down the Adam Walsh rabbit hole. I do not believe anything to do with Adam. I do believe they were looking for Jeff to confess so they could write before the truth behind his disappearance surfaced. His sister Meghan began to question her death & her father turned against her, fought to have her children removed and tried to have declared insane. John Walsh has been the face of America's Most Wanted & Center for Missing Exploited Children as a way to compensate him for his silence and involvement in his son's ritual. There are plenty of factual resources to back up my claims. I can send them to you if you think would connect any dots in your investigation.
