

Why Did DA Michael McCann Share an Address with Jeff Dahmer?

We knew there was something strange about Jeff Dahmer's alleged 1988 arrest for supposedly molesting Somsack Sinthasomphone.

THE DAHMER CASE

Share

Jeff Dahmer was supposedly arrested in 1988 on charges of sexually abusing 13-year-old Somsack Sinthasomphone. However, we located a lengthy list of the previous tenants of 808 N. 24th Street and guess whose name isn't on it?

Jeff Dahmer's.

That's right. There's no record of Jeff ever having lived at that address.

But we hit pay dirt. We found the name of someone else associated with this case on the list of past tenants at 808 N. 24th Street. Make sure you're sitting down for this one:

It was the DA who prosecuted Jeff Dahmer in 1991, Michael McCann.

So, it kinda looks like the DA fabricated the charge against Jeff Dahmer, doesn't it? The question is...why? To answer that question - or at least try to - we need to look closely at DA Michael McCann and the Sinhasomphone family.

The Sinhasomphone family was brought to the US from Laos with the help of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The New York Times wrote an article about the family. Click on the images below to read the article:

JUDGE WILLIAM GARDNER after Mr. Dahmer wrote a remorseful letter apologizing for the incident. He was released in early 1990 after serving one year of his sentence and put on probation.

The family refuses to talk about its first brush with Mr. Dahmer. "It is a touchy topic with them," Mr. Burns said, a Catholic priest in Sheboygan, Wis., who has known the family for most of their time in this country. And the family only reluctantly speaks about its second contact with the 31-year-old unemployed man, who lured Konarak into his apartment with the promise of money for posing for pictures, the police have said.

Family members said they wish they had been told about Mr. Dahmer.

"We will do this until we remain and bury him or create Anouke Sinthasomphone, one brother, said quietly. A service tentatively planned either for Saturday or Monday night at St. Cathedral here, the church that sponsor the Sinthasomphone voyage to America.

While Anouke Sinthason watched, two of his brothers' cousin knelt before the shrine, stared at Konarak's photograph far from the photograph, a small tape near the shrine offered

The Sinthasomphone family was brought to the US from Laos by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

After arriving in the US from Laos, the Sinthasomphone family developed a relationship with Father Peter Burns, a Roman Catholic priest and pedophile who eventually convicted of second-degree sexual assault against a minor (male).

Father Peter Burns spent just under a year in prison (work release). For more information about him, see the website Bishop Accountability and this 104-page F from the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

District Attorney Michael McCann, a staunch Catholic, was a close friend of Archbishop Rembert Weakland. Weakland, who was gay, presided over a scandal-ridden archdiocese that eventually had to file for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in 2011 because of its numerous sex abuse lawsuit liabilities. In 2019, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee even removed Weakland's name from its headquarters complex and cathedral center.

So, back to Jeff Dahmer's alleged arrest (Second Degree Sexual Assault and Enticing a Child for Immoral Purposes) on September 27, 1988, for supposedly molesting Somsack Sinthasomphone. Here's the record from the FBI files. Notice anything curious about this felony arrest?

It was a felony arrest without any mugshots:

Why didn't they take a mugshot? They had an alleged sex offender. They didn't wa his photo in the database?

Information in the FBI Vault also shows that no mugshot was taken for Jeff Dahm alleged arrest on September 8, 1986, for lewd and lascivious behavior and indecent exposure:

Somsack Sinthasomphone was also only 13 years old. That means the police could have taken a statement from him without the presence of his parents or another adult relative. Someone had to be present during the identification and his return to 808 24th Street, where everything happened.

If so, why didn't any of the family members know what Jeff looked like?

Somsack Sinthasomphone's older brother repeatedly said they had no idea what Jeff Dahmer looked like. They didn't even know Jeff's name or where he lived. Have a listen:

- But prior to leaving, I showed SS a number of photographs, including the person who had been identified by the apartment manager, and SS positively identified Jeffrey Dahmer as person who had taken him to his apartment and taken these photos.

- This is what you refer to in police work as a photo array. Is that correct?

- Yes.

- And you had Mr Dahmer's picture on file from an earlier case where he had indecently exposed himself.

- That is correct

So Somsack Sinhasomphone and the apartment manager both identified Jeff from photo that we now know does not exist because, in 1986, when he was arrested for indecent exposure, no photo was taken.

We also know - as noted above - that Jeff Dahmer's name is not associated in public records with the address where this molestation allegedly happened. The DA's nar is.

Something else, note that what they claimed Jeff Dahmer did - Second Degree Sex Assault and Enticing a Child for Immoral Purposes - is exactly what Father Peter Burns was convicted of.

From the files of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee about Father Peter Burns:

9/21/91

Case [REDACTED]

V.T

After the Jeffrey Dahmer case hit the Milwaukee area of July 23, 1991, Detectives Schoenenberger and Sorensen had observed newspaper stories indicating that Father Peter Burns had been involved with the family of one of Jeffrey Dahmer's victims and had also been a family friend of the victim himself. Through various newspaper stories it was determined that Father Burns had spent time with these children and this time may have been spent alone. Contact was made with [REDACTED] reference this previous sexual assault case. She stated that her son, [REDACTED] the victim, was now 18 years of age, was an adult and could speak of this matter himself. Detectives contacted [REDACTED] He was asked if he had ever received any counselling for this incident. He stated that he had not. He stated he seemed to be handling things

District Attorney Michael McCann isn't the only key player in this "serial killer" connected to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. There are others...

District Attorney Michael McCann's, Assistant DA was Gregory J. O'Meara. This is now known as Rev Gregory J. O'Meara, and he's the rector of the Marquette University Jesuit Community.

Rev Gregory O'Meara, Assistant DA in Jeff Dahmer's show trial

Jeff Dahmer's attorney, Gerald Boyle, was representing priests accused of sexual assault against minors.

Jeff Dahmer's attorney, Gerald Boyle

From Bishop Accountability.org:

Father Lesniewski had recently hired Milwaukee attorney Gerald Boyle to represent him. That, according to Bishop Sklba's letter, was fortuitous. Mr. Boyle had recently offered to the archbishop a "special set fee" to represent any priest from the archdiocese.

In the agreement with attorney Boyle, the archdiocese would be billed directly for the priest and the priest would then reimburse the archdiocese when able. The agreement would cover Mr. Boyle's retainer, pleadings, initial settlement discussions, discovery and, if necessary, trial costs.

Judge William Gardner, the man who - according to the official story - sentenced J Dahmer to a year in prison for molesting Somsack Sinthasomphone, had worked f Michael McCann at one time and said deaf students who were sexually molested t Father Lawrence Murphy were "making up stories". See For Years, Deaf Boys Try Tell of Priest's Abuse for more information.

The two officers, Balcerzak and Gabrish, who supposedly returned a bleeding "Konerak" Sinthasomphone to Jeff Dahmer, helped Gerald Boyle defend the accus Capuchin priests and brothers:

The officers, who were [REDACTED] removed from the department, claimed that they believed the youngster was involved in a “gay spat” with Dahmer. Dahmer’s defense attorney, Gerald Boyle, later hired the dismissed police officers as private investigators in his defense work for the accused Capuchin priests and brothers from St. Lawrence seminary in Mt. Calvary.

Finally, have a look at this side-by-side image of Somsack Sinthasomphone and “Konerak Sinthasomphone,” the boy Jeff Dahmer supposedly murdered in 1991.
