

Who Was Alleged Jeff Dahmer "Victim" Raymond Smith ("Cash D")?

They created a "victim" using the data of three different people.

THE DAHMER CASE

How exactly did they identify "Cash D" as Raymond Smith? We could never figure out. Jeff Dahmer's confession doesn't say Jeff identified Raymond Smith from a photo. However, they found another person - Mark Lee Brown - who supposedly matched the description:

pitchforks going up. A check of the Gang Crimes Unit revealed that they had stuck up individual identified as Mark Lee BROWN-M/B, dob-8/10/63 with an address of 2110 W. State St. or 1025 N. 21st St. and this individual is a B&D. Gang Member from Chicago and that he does have the tattoo Cash D on his right chest area. Detective BARBER will attempt to locate this individual during his tour of duty.

Jeff Dahmer Confession - Raymond Smith "Cash D"

Then, someone named Raymond Lamont Smith appears in the police report. He has the same month and day of birth (August 10) as Mark Lee Brown but a different year 1957 instead of 1963.

Note that the date of the incident is July 1990.

Jeff Dahmer - Police Report

A Wisconsin Circuit Court search (see screenshot below) turned up a Raymond Sn who was black and born on 2-15-1963. Note the filing date is June 4, 1990.

If you click on the above link and view the case on the Wisconsin Circuit Court's website, you'll see that Judge William Gardner was involved in this. (For more information about Judge William Gardner, see What Role Did The Archdiocese of Milwaukee Play In The "Jeff Dahmer, Serial Killer" Show?)

Raymond Smith (2-15-1963) was charged with some serious felonies. Five counts a of 940.225\(3\)\(a\) \(Third Degree Sexual Assault\), which is a class G on its own, carrying up to 10 years of prison time.

The sister of Raymond Smith (2-15-1963) had this to say after the story about Jeff Dahmer broke:

Smith: Smith hadn't been seen by family members for more than a year, his half-sister, Donita Grace, said. Family members did not report the disappearance because Smith frequently went months or years without seeing them, she said.

Smith, who was also known as Ricky L Beeks and Raymond Lamont, moved into Grace's home at 4040 N. 40th St., in spring 1990, shortly after he was released from prison. Smith has a criminal record dating back to 1979.

chance to stop Dahmer when the boy was seen May 27 staggering around the streets naked and bleeding from the buttocks.

But the boy was allowed to return to Dahmer who apparently convinced police that it was a squab-

Rockford, Ill., also said it was unusual for him to be gone for long periods. Beeks, also known as Raymond Lamont Smith, was last seen in May 1990 when he came to Milwaukee to visit family. Beeks had a 10-year-old daughter.

Other families fretted over missing loved ones but felt powerless

Chippewa Herald-Telegram, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, Sun, Jul 28, 1991

So, Raymond Smith (AKA Ricky L. Beeks and Raymond Lamont Smith - born 2-15-1963) had a felony charge dropped (just like Ernest Richard Smith) on July 5, 1990, then died July 23, 1990.

How You Create A Victim

The people who created this fake news story changed Raymond Lamont Smith's birth date to 8/10/1957 (Remember, Mark Lee Brown's birth date was 8/10/1963), came up with the nickname "Cash D," and made him a "victim" whom Jeff Dahmer supposedly killed in May 1990.

For an image of the “victim,” they used a photo of another Raymond Smith. This Raymond Smith was born on 4-23-1963, and he's still alive:

Alleged Jeff Dahmer victim, Raymond Smith, in 2011

So, another good find.

No one cared to question that Mark Lee Brown was an entirely different person, either. We also couldn't find any records for the "Raymond Lamont Smith" in the confession (DOB of 08/10/57). He also isn't in the Social Security Death Index.

They used the identities of 3 different people Mark Lee Brown ('Cash D'), Raymond Smith 1 who soon after having his charges dropped, and Raymond Smith 2, whose photos were used to portray 'victim'. Notice the lack of movement on the charges against Raymond 1 before they were dropped. Compared to the typical process, for Father Peter Burns for instance (another serious felony in the same state & time period). No movement for a month before Raymond 1 charges are dropped, yet B has already gone through all the following stages in just over a month & the case continues to progress thereafter:
