

Why Wasn't Jeff Dahmer Convicted of Killing Steve Tuomi?

The Curious Case of Steve Tuomi

One of the most curious anomalies in the fake news story about Jeff Dahmer is the absence of a murder charge for Steve Tuomi, despite Jeff's detailed confession. Tuomi is listed as the second victim, following Steven Hicks. Yet, unlike other supposed victims with no physical evidence, Tuomi's name never appeared in the final set of charges.

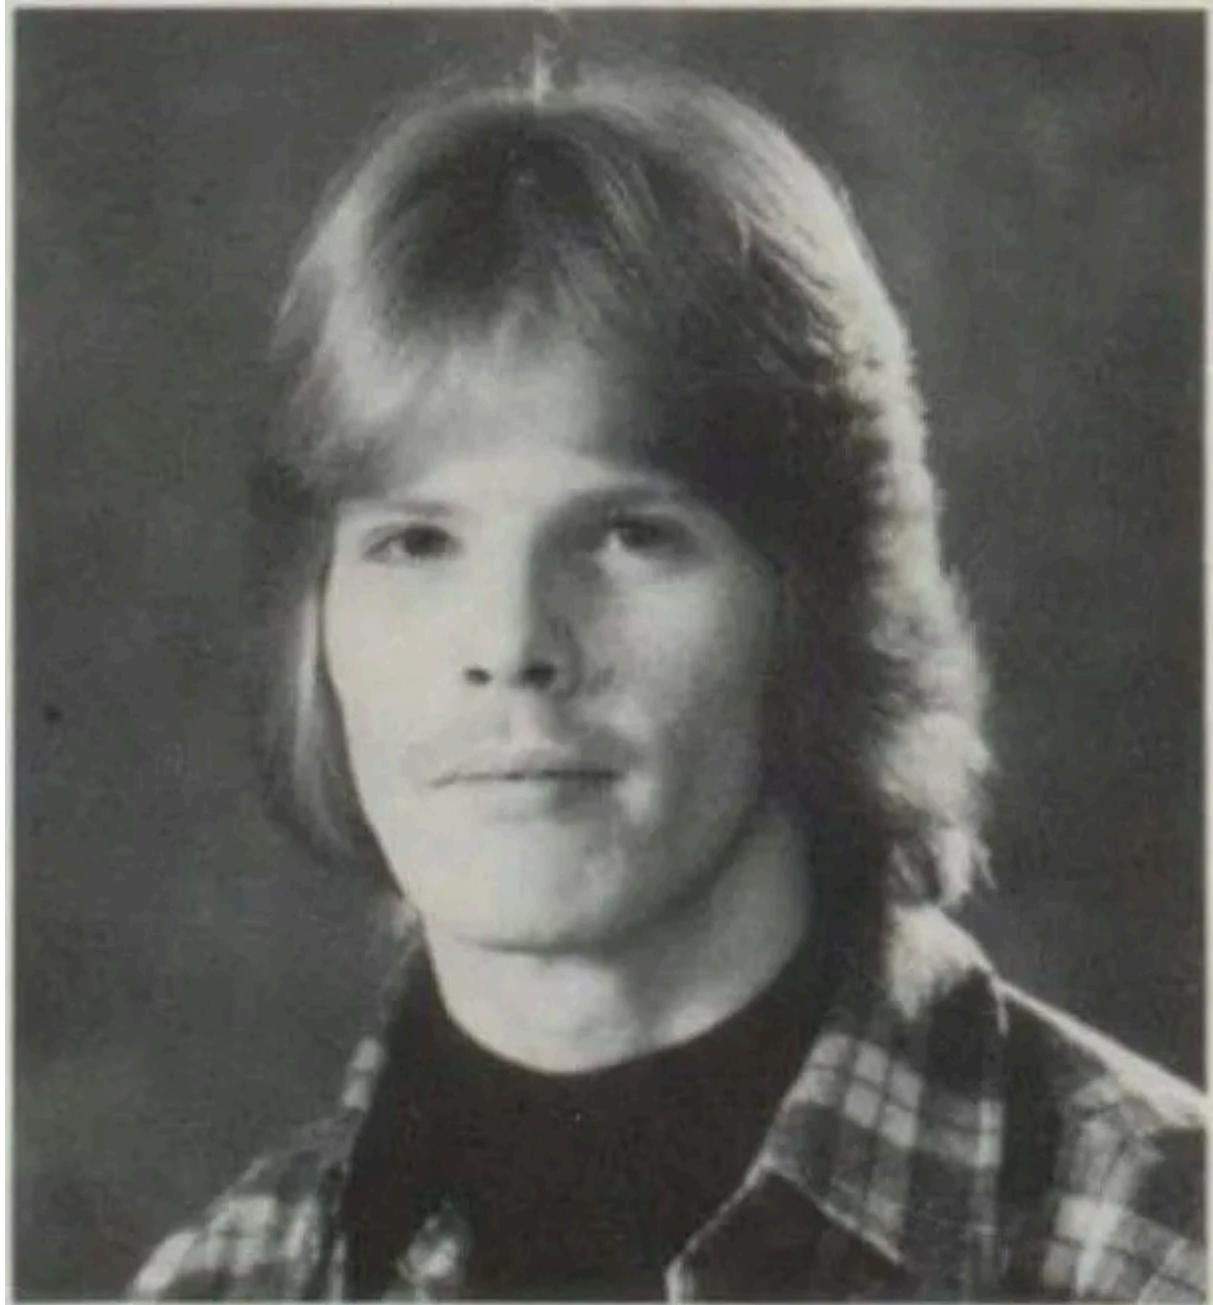

Why?

Here's an extract from USA Today about why Jeff Dahmer was not convicted of killing Steve Tuomi. They didn't have a body, and there was no sign of foul play:

He's the only murder victim in Milwaukee for which Dahmer was not charged because of lack of evidence; Dahmer did not recall details but believes he killed Tuomi at the Ambassador Hotel.

Tuomi's father, Walter, said he was originally told by Milwaukee police that they could do nothing because there was no sign of foul play. Tuomi was last seen Sept. 15, 1987.

Jeff Dahmer was not charged with killing Steve Tuomi

A Murder Without Evidence

Jeff claimed that Tuomi died during a blackout episode at the Ambassador Hotel said he had no memory of the act itself, only waking up beside Tuomi's body. He allegedly transported the body in a suitcase back to his grandmother's house, wh disposed of it.

This account presents serious problems for investigators. No forensic evidence v recovered from the Ambassador Hotel, no witnesses came forward, and no foota staff report placed Tuomi in Jeff's presence.

And most importantly, there wasn't a body.

Why Tuomi Broke the Pattern

Yet this absence of physical evidence didn't stop Milwaukee prosecutors from charging Jeff Dahmer in several other cases. James Doxtator, Richard Guerrero, Edward Smith, and David Thomas were all officially recognized as victims with no remains found. The standard of proof in these cases relied on confession alone.

So why not Tuomi?

To make the puzzle more confounding, Tuomi was supposedly reported missing in September 1987, but Jeff's confession places the incident around Thanksgiving of that year.

We questioned him regarding victim #1, whom he stated died at the Ambassador Hotel and he related that he met this individual about one week before Thanksgiving in 1987. He stated he had rented a room at the Ambassador Hotel and had previously prepared sleeping pills in a glass by breaking the pills down to a powdery form and leaving this form in the glass. He stated that when he and the victim returned to the hotel, he made a rum and coke in the glass with the pills. He stated he gave this drink to the individual and the individual subsequently passed out. Mr. DAHMER stated he had also drank a lot and was lying in bed with this individual and he passed out. When he awoke, he discovered the victim dead and blood coming from the side of his mouth. He stated that he also noticed on the victim, severe bruising on his chest and that he (DAHMER) had bruising on his forearms, so he surmised that he had beaten the victim about the chest, possibly killing him. After this occurred, Mr. DAHMER took the room for another night, proceeded to the Grand Avenue Mall, where he purchased a large suitcase from Woolworth's. He stated the suitcase had a zipper with a leather buckle going around the suitcase. He stated he placed the victim in the suitcase and conveyed him to his grandmother's residence via a cab.

of the bones were broken. DAHMER then carried TUOMI and placed him in a closet in the hotel room. DAHMER sat around the hotel room for a couple of hours, trying to figure out what to do.

At about noon he went to the Grand Avenue Mall. He bought a large suitcase with wheels on it and returned to the Ambassador Hotel. During that time he may have had some beers and he left the hotel room to get a bite to eat. At about 5:PM he returned to the hotel room and placed TUOMI into the large suitcase. DAHMER related that it was a very tight fit, but he was able to get him into the suitcase. DAHMER related that he had purchased the room for another night and he remained in the room that night until 1:AM. At that time he left the room with the suitcase, taking an elevator to the ground floor. He got a cab and upon approaching the cab, had the cab driver help him place the suitcase in the back seat of the cab. He then took the cab to his grandmother's house on S. 57th Street.

A Placeholder in the Narrative?

Could Tuomi have served a different role in the narrative? Perhaps not as an actual victim, but as a structural placeholder—a name inserted to bring the count to a significant number—a number that would carry symbolic weight.

The number 17.

The Significance of 17

This possibility becomes even more relevant when one considers that Tuomi is one of several alleged victims who do not appear in the Social Security Death Index.

But Tuomi's case stands out for a different reason: Jeff Dahmer specifically confessed to killing him, and yet prosecutors did not file charges—even though they did pursue charges for other individuals whose remains were also supposedly never recovered. That inconsistency makes Tuomi's omission not just curious, but downright suspicious.

So we are left with a simple but potent question...

Was Steve Tuomi inserted for symbolic reasons, to bring the total of victims to 15? Readers who understand the significance of that number will recognize why this matters.

If Tuomi was a planted name—if his inclusion was meant to signal something rather than document a death—then the lack of a conviction wasn't an oversight.

It was a sign.

Want To Go Deeper?

Let's explore a couple of Jeff Dahmer's homicide convictions without a body. Here are the circumstances and identification in the confession for Eddie Smith:

The next individual, victim #6, was met at the Phoenix on 2nd St. and he again approached this individual with the same line as to having to pose for photos and having to view videos and drink. He describes this individual as a black male, about 24, 6'2", 170 lbs., medium build, dark skin, prematurely bald, close cut hair, clean shaven, and he said he used to be with the Milwaukee Ballet. He states that he had oral sex with this individual and then killed him by the same procedure, drugging him until he slept, strangling him, and then dismembering him. He states he did not keep anything from this individual. Upon viewing a photograph of a missing person, he identified victim #6 being SMITH, Edward Warren-M/B, B of I #244654. He states that this photo does look like the individual he picked up and states he did not keep any body parts.

Regarding victim #5, Cash D, he states he did keep this individual's skull and painted it after it had dried out.

Jeff Dahmer confession about Eddie Smith

VICTIM EDWARD SMITH, DOB: 8/2/62

1) Upon the further statement of the defendant, that during the Summer of 1990, approximately in July, he met a person whom he identified through a photograph as Edward W. Smith, DOB: 8-2-62, at the Phoenix Bar on 2nd Street in Milwaukee and offered him money for sex and to pose for pictures; they took a cab to his (the defendant's) apartment at 924 North 25th Street in the City and county of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin; they had oral sex and he gave Smith a drink which contained sleeping pills and then strangled him; he dismembered Smith and took four or five photos of him; he completely disposed of Edward Smith's body by placing it in garbage bags and at a later time he also got rid of the photos of Edward Smith; he further recalls that Smith wore a headband like an Arab.

2) Upon the statement of Carolyn Smith, an adult citizen, that she (Carolyn Smith) is the sister of Edward W. Smith and that she has had no contact with him since June 23, 1990; further that her brother was called "the Sheik" because he frequently wore a turban-like wrap on his head.

Here's what Jeff Dahmer's "confession" says about Richard Guerrero:

1988, in a bar called the Phoenix, in the doorway, offered him money for sex, at which time they took a taxi to his grandmother's house at 2357 S. 57th St. While there, he gave him the drink mixture of rum & coke and sleeping pills, they had oral sex, the victim fell asleep, he strangled him, dismembered him, broke up the bones, threw them in garbage bags and into the garbage. He did not keep anything on this victim. This victim was subsequently identified by DAHMER, as GUERRERO, Richard, Hispanic male, 12-12-65, 3332 N. 1st St., 263-5512. GUERRERO was missing since 03-29-88.

Detective O'Reilly to take this photograph, along with photograph that had been taken by the suspect of his homicide victim to the family in order to make identification.

The next B of I photograph shown to him was #190872 (Richard GUERRERO), and he stated that he could not be sure, but the victim (who was Victim #3 in Milwaukee) was a Hispanic male and had had his photograph in the personals in the Milwaukee Journal. A copy of this paper was obtained from 01-07-89 and upon viewing this photograph in the personals he stated, "Yes", this is the Hispanic male I killed at my grandmother's house (2357 S. 57th St.). He further stated this occurred sometime in March of 1988. /N WEST ALLIS

Both the identifications of THOMAS and GUERRERO were subsequently made as positive identifications and were listed as homicide victims.

On Tuesday, 07-30-91, again while questioning DAHMER at the CI8 in the presence of his attorney (PATRICKUS), we showed him a photo array consisting of four Hispanic males, B of I numbers: #209415, #234074, #234356 and #227440. Upon viewing these four photographs, DAHMER picked out B of I #234356 and stated this photograph looks like the first Hispanic male he met on 2nd St., (Victim #2) which occurred approximately in January knife he used, however he is positive it was not a kitchen utensil from his grandmother's kitchen, that he bought the knife and disposed of the knife the same way he did the body, that being through the trash.

Regarding the GUERRERO identification, the West Allis detectives were interested in how he was positive that the victim that he had killed was in fact GUERRERO and he stated that after viewing the ID photo provided by the Milwaukee Police, he was also given newspaper pictures dated during the time element in which GUERRERO was missing and stated that he distinctly remembered reading the newspaper article and seeing the picture of his victim in the newspaper and realizing that was in fact the victim he had brought back to his grandmother's house and this is why he is sure that GUERRERO is in fact one of his victims.

VICTIM RICHARD GUERRERO, DOB: 12/12/65

1) Upon the further statement of the defendant, that in approximately March of 1988 he (the defendant) met a Hispanic male in the Phoenix Bar located on 2nd Street near the 219 Club in the City and County of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin; he (the defendant) asked this man to come to his residence which at that time was his grandmother's house located at 2357 South 57th Street in the City of West Allis, County of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin; he asked the man to come to look at videos and take photos or engage in sex and the man came with him; they had oral sex at the house and then he drugged the man; while the man was drugged he killed him and dismembered the body and disposed of it completely without keeping any parts; he recalls that he later saw in the personal section of a local newspaper a photo of this victim and a report that he was missing; further the defendant viewed a photograph from the January 7, 1989 Milwaukee Journal of Richard Guerrero, DOB: 12-12-65, and identified this as the person he killed in this incident.

2) Upon the statement of Pablo Guerrero, an adult citizen, that he (Guerrero) is the father of Richard Guerrero and that he has not seen his son since mid March, 1988; at that time he (Pablo Guerrero) reported his son as missing to the Milwaukee Police Department; further that advertisements with his son's picture were placed in local newspapers indicating that his son was missing.

Steve Tuomi incident report

Notice that this isn't Jeff Dahmer's social security number on the incident report

This is how Jeff Dahmer identified Steve Tuomi:

Forces in Germany and denies any part of this offense.
At this time we showed family photographs regarding a possible victim of DAHMER'S, that being Steven W. TUOMI, W/M, DOB 12-19-62, Ina 1315 N. Cass Street. Mr. DAHMER viewed this photograph and positively identified him as being the individual whom he first murdered in Milwaukee at the Ambassador Hotel.

How Jeff Dahmer identified Steve Tuomi

What is the difference between this identification and the identification of Eddie Smith and Richard Guerrero?

Like Eddie Smith and Richard Guerrero, Jeff never identified Tuomi by name. He shown a photo by investigators. Only then did he say, "Yes, that looks like the gu

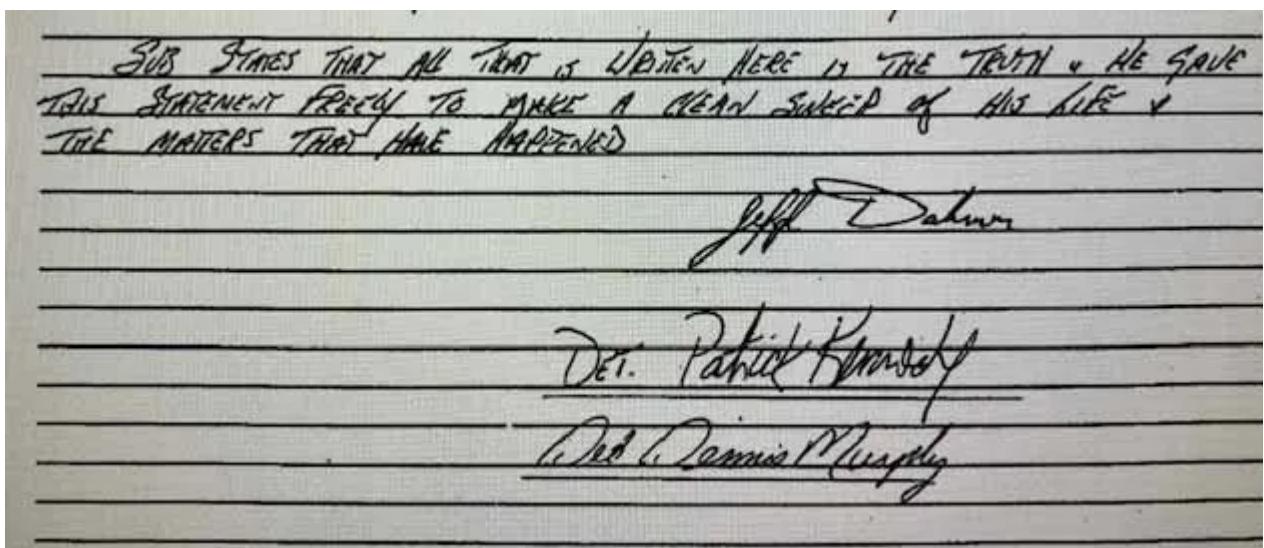

Here's an extract from USA Today about why Jeff Dahmer was not convicted of k Steve Tuomi:

He's the only murder victim in Milwaukee for which Dahmer was not charged because of lack of evidence; Dahmer did not recall details but believes he killed Tuomi at the Ambassador Hotel.

Tuomi's father, Walter, said he was originally told by Milwaukee police that they could do nothing because there was no sign of foul play. Tuomi was last seen Sept. 15, 1987.

Jeff Dahmer was not charged with killing Steve Tuomi

Here's Jeff Dahmer's signature on the confession:

Consider this...

Why was no investigation carried out into this missing person/homicide confess back up Jeff's statements about Steve Tuomi? Surely, they could have found some circumstantial evidence, no? Why did the police feel there was no evidence? There were plenty of potential witnesses to call upon - more than for the other missing persons who also had no remains yet resulted in homicide convictions.

Jeff Dahmer says he booked a room at the Ambassador Hotel for two nights...

- Was there evidence of this 2-night booking? Jeff Dahmer mentions in his confession that he had booked rooms at the Ambassador Hotel on previous occasions. Was he a familiar customer?
- There would have been hotel staff, cleaners, guests, and the cab driver; all co questioned. Did none of them recall seeing these two men?
- The cab driver allegedly even helped to load the suitcase supposedly contain Steve Tuomi's body into the car. Setting aside the possibility of putting a full grown man in a suitcase in the first place, this would have weighed around 6 we go with Jeff's estimate of 130 pounds given in the confession. That's a pre heavy bag. For comparison, the typical airline maximum weight allowance is kg.
- Jeff Dahmer describes a violent incident. Wouldn't any guests or staff have h such a commotion? We can't even play loud music in a half-decent hotel afte hours.
- Jeff Dahmer says that Steve Tuomi was bleeding. Did the housekeeping staff notice blood on the bedding or elsewhere? What about Jeff's clothing?
- Did the front desk staff at the hotel not notice Jeff's bruised arms and hands he booked another night? What about the cab driver?
- What about obtaining proof that he purchased the suitcase? According to th confession, they managed to track down his receipt for a 1982 gun purchase.

All this - and probably more - could have helped back up Jeff Dahmer's statements offer circumstantial evidence. So why was none of this followed up?

And interestingly, no-one questioned Steve's landlords. Yes, if the story about the Ambassador was true, it would hold far more potential for circumstantial & forensic evidence to warrant an investigation. Jeff allegedly placed Steve in a 3x3x1 suitcase.. mentioned in the FBI vault. You picture Ressler raising his eyebrows at that story..
