

They Say That Awareness Fuels Perception...

THE DAHMER CASE

OCT 01, 2024

10

1

2

Share

We are making this information available online in the hope that you, the reader, who has been deceived for decades, will realize what happened to Jeff Dahmer.

Now that we've told you about it, you are aware. You cannot go back to sleep. Soon, if not already, you will begin to perceive, as others before you have.

Here's a comment from under one of our YouTube videos:

The more I watch the impact statements and watch the interviews of the family members, more fake and contrived they sound. They always talk like they're reading lines. Or is it just me?

This person is now aware and is beginning to perceive the deception. Once you see it, you can't un-see it. Everything starts to look ridiculous, like this clip of Shari Dahmer pretending to cry:

..or Rita Isbell, sister of an alleged victim, telling Dr. Phil that she felt “the presence of evil” around Jeff Dahmer:

..or Ernest Richard Smith - who played “victim Eddie Smith” and “Carolyn Smith” talking about how Jeff “baked” Eddie’s head in the oven:

Here's the real Jeff Dahmer. He was a decent young man who found himself in a terrible situation, surrounded by evil people in positions of power:

Jeff Dahmer with his stepmother and father

Jeff Dahmer - 1980s

Jeff Dahmer on his birthday - 1980s

Jeff Dahmer - 1978

10 Likes · 2 Restacks

Discussion about this post

Comments Restacks

Write a comment...

Trix Oct 1

Liked by The Dahmer Case

It all looks totally staged to the discerning viewer, once the truth is known, it cannot be unseen say.

LIKED (2)

REPLY